A Delegation from the Erasmus Project Visits the University

Date 10-07-2018

A delegation from the European Union-funded project, Erasmus Plus, visited Zarqa University Tuesday to follow up the implementation of the project, which aims to establish an office for serving refugee students at Zarqa University.

Dr. Bassam Al-Helou, President of Zarqa University, said: "The University's continuous support for various scientific projects reflects positively on the progress of the educational process in the university and improving the conditions of refugee students to complete their university education."

The delegation, which included the Deputy Director of the Union of Mediterranean Universities, Dr. Raniero Chilwa, the Assistant of the Euro-Mediterranean University Marco De Donato, Director of the Erasmus National Office in Jordan, Dr. Ahmed Abu Al-Haija, and a delegation from the Jordanian universities participating in the project: Yarmouk University, Dr. Ashraf Shakdan, and Dr. Ashraf Kanaan from Zarqa University, said that the workshop aims at supporting refugee students who wish to complete their university education in addition to holding training programs.
