

144727-TEMPUS-2008-IT-JPCR

Project Type	Joint Projects - Curricular Reform
Target country(ies) and	JO (13)
Subject area	Land, agriculture, environment, food tech
Title	A New Jordanian MSc in Water Management and Desalination Engineering (JoMDE)
Description	The project aims to enhance and modernize the capabilities of the Jordanian Partner Universities to effectively lead in facing the challenging water resource problems that are impacting Jordan and the neighboring area. This will be achieved by development of a M.Sc. Program in Water Management and Desalination Engineering at BAU, Development of competences at MU for offering of Continuing Education courses in Water Resources and Desalination Engineering and Improvement/modernization of curricular offer at HU.
Specific Objectives	1) creation of a MSc program in Water Management and Desalination Engineering at Albalqua University that will provides new and innovative directions in training research professionals in this critical area. 2) Development of competences at Mutah University for offering Continuing Education courses in Water Resources and Desalination Engineering 3) Improvement/modernization of curricular offer in Water Resources Management at Hashemite University
Duration	36
Total awarded amount	535.117,00 €

GRANTHOLDER

Contracting institution	University of Pavia
Contact person	Angiolino Stella

COORDINATOR

Coordinating institution	University of Pavia
Contact person	Andrea Giuseppe Capodaglio

PARTNERS

University of Las Palmas de Gran Canaria	ES
Autonomous University of Barcelona	ES
Center For Research And Technology - Hellas	GR
Al-Balqua Applied University	JO
Hashemite University	JO
Mutah University	JO